Dear <Client Name>,

The kids' playoff game. The group dinner out on the town. The big family party where everyone's got something to say – especially the little ones. You want to hear the voices that matter, but when noise is coming at you from every direction, it can feel impossible. We're here to help.

Get back in the mix with Moxi™ S-RX

This new solution may be exactly what you've been waiting for. With AI-powered separation of speech from noise, a sleek design for all-day comfort, and personalisation tools that improve your listening experience, you can stop straining to hear—or nodding along because you didn't.

How to turn “Maybe next time” into “Bring it on” with Moxi S-RX:

- Cut through the noise, catch the chatter
AI technology separates speech from noise—even when life gets really loud—for clarity and confidence in the chaos.
- Start streaming
Moxi S-RX pairs easily with Bluetooth® devices so you can answer calls, stream music and more—directly from your hearing aids.
- Forget you're wearing them
Designed for whatever the day brings, Moxi S-RX is light, comfortable and features a long-lasting rechargeable battery.
- Personalise your listening experience
With the easy-to-use Remote Plus app, you can make simple adjustments and send feedback to us between appointments.

Just say, “Bring it on!”

You're back in the game. You've got a seat at the table. Your voice in the mix. Book a no-obligation appointment with us to find out if Moxi S-RX is right for you.
