

Did you know that a pair of hearing aids can use around 100 batteries a year?

It's important that we dispose of batteries responsibly by dropping them off to a collection centre to have toxic metals removed and recycled.

Find your nearest collection centre.